

Sixten Korkman

The Managing Director of ETLA (The Research Institute of the Finnish Economy) and EVA (Finnish Business and Policy Forum), Mr Sixten Korkman, has earlier worked, inter alia, as director general of the economic department of the ministry of finance, and as director general (directorate for economic and social affairs) at the secretariat of the council of the European Union. He is an economist, with doctoral degree from the University of Helsinki, and has written extensively on economic policy issues, including a book on “Economic Policy in the European Union”, (Palgrave MacMillan, 2005).